

PS-PhilGEPS Workshop with Merchants

“Sharing the Vision, Valuing Partnerships.”

2 October 2015 | Hotel H2O, Luneta, Manila

- Conflict of Interest
- Lack of Transparency
- Unclear Accountability
- Weak Public Monitoring

A photograph of a broken eggshell. In the center is a pile of fine, light-colored powder. Surrounding this central pile are approximately ten irregular fragments of eggshell, arranged in a loose circular pattern on a dark, flat surface. The fragments vary in size and shape, showing the internal structure of the shell. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the shell and the powder.

Procurement Environment

2002 WB CPAR

The Public Procurement system in the Philippines is:

- Dysfunctional
- Inefficient
- Prone to abuse

A conducive breeding space for graft and corruption . . .

Key Reforms

“Sharing the Vision, Valuing Partnerships.”

2 October 2015 | Hotel H2O, Luneta, Manila

The background of the slide features a light blue gradient with several interlocking gears of various sizes. The gears are rendered in a semi-transparent, metallic style, creating a mechanical or industrial theme. They are scattered across the slide, with some larger gears in the foreground and smaller ones in the background.

LOI 755

The Procurement Council, with the assistance of the Procurement Service, shall design and implement an integrated procurement system for supplies, materials and other items needed by the government. It shall undertake the following specific functions:

- Identify those supplies, materials, and such other items, including equipment and construction material, which can be economically purchased through central procurement and which it shall cover within its scope of activity;
- Determine the technical specifications of items that it will procure for agencies of the government;
- c. Identify the sources of supply which are able to offer the best prices, terms and other conditions for the items procured by government;
- Purchase, warehouse and distribute items for resale to agencies of government, including government owned or controlled corporations;
- Operate a paper converting plant which will service the requirements of government;
- Undertake continuing studies to improve and develop the government procurement system, coverage and procedure.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 17

DIRECTING THE USE OF THE PROCUREMENT SERVICE AND THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT ELECTRONIC PROCUREMENT SYSTEM IN PROCUREMENT ACTIVITIES IN ACCORDANCE WITH REPUBLIC ACT NO. 9184, AND IMPROVING THE OPERATION OF THE PROCUREMENT SERVICE

- SECTION 4. Procurement of Common-Use Supplies. Common-use supplies shall be procured directly from the PS or its depots without need of public bidding as provided in Section 53.5 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRRs) of R.A. 9184.
- SECTION 5. Use of PhilGEPS. All government procuring entities are mandated to use the PhilGEPS in its procurement activities, and shall post all opportunities, notices, awards, and contracts in it as the central portal of government procurement transactions in accordance with R.A. 9184 and its IRRs. All shall subscribe to the additional features of the PhilGEPS such as the Virtual Store, E-payment and E-bid submission as they become available and are implemented.. . .
